Cuffed suspect goes on the run for three days

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A SUSPECT in an assault gave police the slip at the weekend before going on the run for three days.

The 21-year-old, from Bradwell, escaped from police custody early on Saturday after officers "became concerned about the health of the offender" and he was taken to hospital by ambulance.

After being released from hospital, as he was walking to the police car, he managed to run off and vanish.

The suspect was only found and rearrested yesterday morning.

He was originally arrested in connection with an assault at 1.19am on Saturday after police were called to the Suffolk Punch public house in Heelands.

MK NEWS understands he was arrested on suspicion of causing actual bodily harm after allegedly assaulting another man with a golf club.

A statement released by Thames Valley Police said that, while he was in police custody, officers became concerned about the health of the offender and an ambulance was called at 2.56am. The man was taken to Milton Keynes General Hospital and was released just after 5am.

This paper understands it was as he was being escorted to the police car in handcuffs that he made his break for freedom.

MK NEWS also heard the police then spent the weekend making door-to-door house calls in the city to try to find him. At 10.12am yesterday morning, a 21-year-old man was rearrested on suspicion of assault and absconding from police custody.

He is currently being interviewed by officers.

Chief Inspector Jim O'Ryan said: "This was an unfortunate incident and we are, of course, conducting an internal review to find out exactly what happened.

"The offender is now back in custody and will be dealt with accordingly."

Ex-Dons player blows £450,000

Loser: Craig Dobson

A FORMER Dons player gambled £450,000 on a TV show.

Craig Dobson, now a Turrock midfielder, appeared on Channel 4's Million Pound Drop, saying he wanted to win the money to start-up his own soccer school.

But the former Crystal Palace youngster lost when he gambled the cash in round six in favour of John Major being older when he went into office as Prime Minister than Gordon Brown.

When they had made their decision, £10,000 was left in favour of Gordon Brown. But in the last second, they moved all the money across to John Major, and lost everything.

When the money was lost Craig merely shrugged his shoulders, looking disappointed, and gave hostess Davina McCall a hug.

A spokesman for the Million Pound Drop said: "Kweku and Craig opened Series 2 of The Million Pound Drop with confidence and style as they brushed past five extremely tough question on everything from Rulers to Travel.

"Their brave style of play however proved to be their downfall as they put all their money on an answer they were unsure of and went home with nothing. "A fantastic pair to watch!"

He appeared on the show on Monday night alongside Kewku, a friend from Manchester.

Dobson played for MK Dons between 2008 and 2009.

Kids' play centre steps in to help young leukemia sufferer

AN event to raise money for a boy suffering from leukemia is being organised by a children's play centre.

Lucas Pritchard, 5, of Purcel Drive, Newport Pagnell, can no longer play football, swim or even go to school, since he was diagnosed in September with high-risk leukaemia, meaning he has an 80 per cent chance of survival, rather than 95.

Melanie Pritchard, Lucas' mum, said: "They thought he had hayfever to begin with, or tonsillitis. But when he'd developed all the symptoms we took him in and we were sent to Oxford where he was diagnosed and started the chemo the same day.

"When I found out, I couldn't breathe or think. I couldn't comprehend it – I had to look it up to confirm what it was in my mind. I'm devastated. I can't think of the words to describe it. But you've got to carry on, you can't let him see you upset.

"Lucas knows he's got leukaemia, but doesn't really understand what it could mean. He asked the other day what it meant to have an 80 per cent chance – I had to say I didn't know.

"I have to be with him at all times, this morning he fell down the stairs because the chemo's affected his joints.

"He's had a Hickman line (a small plastic duct allowing chemotherapy and blood-letting) fitted into his chest wall which he calls his 'wiggly'. I have to check that all the time, and he can't play-fight with his younger brother Zane like he used to, in case it comes out.

"I have to check his temperature twice a day, and give him chemo pills once a day and anti-sickness pills twice a day. He has chemo at least twice a week, but last week it was every day. He's put on a stone because of the steroids, and lost his hair because of the chemo.

"The money raised at the event by 360 Play will be half for Leukaemia and Lymphoma Research, and the other half to help cheer Lucas up when he's down because of the chemo, as the treatment's going to last for at least another three years.

"I want to thank everyone who's shown us so much support, especially Newport Pagnell Town FC - who he used to play for. I've been amazed by the generosity of people."

The event at 360 Play, Roebuck Way, Knowlhill is on November 13 between 6.30 and 8.30pm and tickets are £4 for children.

For more information about the event visit www.360play.uk.com.

Women office workers stuck in lift

A PREGNANT woman was taken to hospital after seven women were stuck in a lift for 40 minutes.

The Retail Merchant Services employees, one of whom is four months pregnant, were stuck in a lift at the offices based at Matrix House, North Fourth Street, CMK.

Paul Knight, operations manager at the firm, said: "One of the women in the lift managed to get a mobile phone signal and called us to say they were stuck.

"The pregnant woman became very agitated and frightened. She had first aid and then was taken to hospital by an ambulance car. It was just to make sure she was okay, she wasn't injured to my knowledge.

"The building's management company is based in London and we were unable to get hold of them, so had to call the fire service."

Firefighters arrived within five minutes of the call and had released the employees within 15 minutes. They then administered first aid to the pregnant woman.

A pensioner died after driving his car into the Nationwide Bank on Radcliffe Street, Wolverton

Driver dies after reversing into bank

A 77-YEAR-OLD driver died when his car reversed into a building society.

The crash occurred on Friday when his black Ford Kia reversed into the wall of Nationwide Bank on Radcliffe Street, Wolverton at around 11.10am.

It is still to be determined whether the man died prior or due to the accident.

He was taken to Milton Keynes Hospital where he was confirmed dead.

PC Ian Stevens said: "We are investigating whether this gentleman died as a result of a medical episode rather than as a result of injuries caused in the collision, which happened at very low speed. I am appealing for anyone who witnessed the collision or saw the car prior to the collision to contact me."

■ Anyone with any information should contact PC Stevens on the 24-hour Police Enquiry Centre on 0845 8 505 505 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Burglars steal from church donation box

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

'SICKENING' burglars desecrated a church – all for the gain of a few pounds.

The sacrilegious act took place on Sunday night, when thieves broke into St Mary's and St Giles Church, Church Street in Stony Stratford and caused hundreds of pounds of damage.

The thieves smashed open the donations box, which had been emptied the day before.

Church warden, Kieran Salter, said: "The daft thing is, had they have come to us and told us they needed money, we would have given it to them. It is obvious that all they were after was money, as nothing else was taken, but they have caused so much damage.

"You would think people would have respect for a church. To come in and do so much damage for such little gain is just sickening."

The burglars broke into the church warden's chest and tore open envelopes in an attempt to find valuables or money. They also attempted to break into the sacristy causing damage to the door and door frame.

PC Mark Rose, investigating the incident, said: "To break into a church and steal from the donations box is about as low as you can get.

"The offenders have caused damage to the church door as well and this will cost money to fix.

"I would ask anyone with information about this offence to contact the police."

If you have any information contact PC Rose, at Milton Keynes police station via the 24-hour non-emergency number, 0845 8 505 505 or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Ofsted under fire for failing to prevent abuse at Oakhill

OFSTED is being criticised for failing to prevent violence and abuse of children.

In a scathing letter to Iain Stewart MP, Frances Crook, director of the Howard League for Penal Reform, has accused Ofsted, of failing to prevent violence and abuse of children in Oakhill Secure Training Centre (STC) in Milton Keynes.

She has now called for a complete overhaul of those responsible for the inspection of prisons for children.

Ms Crook's letter stated that restraint was used 459 times on children in Oakhill STC between April 2008 and March 2009 and the legal team has received complaints from children in Oakhill STC about restraint.

Ms Crook said: "Children held in Oakhill STC have been subject to violence, danger, fear and possibly abuse yet Ofsted has failed to acknowledge this and prevent it. The inspection regime for STCs has failed to provide assurance that children in these institutions are being cared for safely.

"Ofsted is failing to protect the welfare of children in Oakhill STC."

The Howard League for Penal Reform has also submitted evidence to the education select committee calling for a complete overhaul of the system and personnel responsible for inspecting STCs.

An Ofsted spokesman said: "The safety and welfare of young people is the central focus of all Ofsted's inspections of secure training centres. The use of restraint is something that we scrutinise rigorously at every inspection. .

"We meet with officers from both the Youth Justice Board and the local authority who are responsible for monitoring the use of restraint, and the advocates who visit the young people weekly.

"Most importantly we talk to young people themselves, without staff being present. The Howard League for Penal Reform has a long established view that secure training centres should be closed, and Ofsted respects this. However, our responsibility is to inspect and report on the evidence."

Nobody from Oakhill STC was available for comment.

Residents wary of new next door neighbours

SIR – In response to your article headed 'New pub in town'.

Living next door to the old Unionist Club in St John Street, which Wetherspoon wants to occupy, we naturally have views about the effects on us personally.

But we are also concerned about the effects on the town.

We understand that Wetherspoon wants to open at seven in the morning and not close until midnight Monday to Thursday and one o'clock in the morning at weekends.

This will surely mean noise and disturbance well into the early morning on every night of the week in the street and in the car park.

On top of this Wetherspoon is known for cheap beer.

As well as general noise this can lead to aggressive behaviour from those who have drunk too much. We already have late night vandalism around town. More late night drinkers can only make matters worse.

With regards to parking, the Silver Street Car Park and all the other parking places in the centre of town are already full to capacity most days, so where will customers park?

We can understand the concern of pubs in the area, but what about the cafes and restaurants, which are already having a hard time?

Don and Jill Allison
St Johns Street

■ SIR – A new Wetherspoon would be better positioned in Bletchley where a decent pub is sorely needed.

Parking should not be an issue at Newport Pagnell – you only have to look at the Wetherspoon in Watford High Street, where there is no parking, to realise that it is not a problem.

And, as you rightly say, it is self evident that pubs do not close in an area because of a new Wetherspoon opening.

Richard Davis
Bletchley

Friendly Beanhill

SIR – Re 'Beanhill is basement estate' story. I found this story upsetting.

I moved here from St Albans two years ago and I am happy to say that I am a Beanhill person .

The people here are some of the best, friendly people I have ever met.

I can agree that some of the outside of the houses could do with a little improvement.

Sometimes I have seen rubbish dumped on the greens which I do not understand.

The MK council workers are great, as they clean up and keep it looking as best they can.

There are many sick people here, I am one. There are many unemployed people here, I am one. So why does Milton Keynes Council look down on us?

If you want to know about Beanhill spend time here and get to know us.

Pete Williams
Woodrush Close, Beanhill

Disgust at council

SIR – I write to express my disgust and disapointment at the behaviour of much of Milton Keynes Council on the evening of Tuesday, October 19.

I sat and listened whilst various councillors attempted to justify their choice to ignore the overwhelming wishes of residents in Campbell Park, CMK, Woughton on the Green, Woughton Park and Passmore.

Two councillors could manage nothing better than to accuse the public gallery of being racist bigots.

Labour and Liberal Democrat councillors actually managed to vote against 'noting the views of residents' in two separate instances. Equally they voted against proposals that had more resident support than any of them were elected with.

If this is how our local council defines the democratic process then they all need some serious re-training.

Hopefully the next local elections will provide that education.

A very angry Woughton On The Green resident

Hitting the old

SIR - Pensioners and supporters across Britain will be travelling to London to lobby their MP today against cuts that will be implemented. We fear that we will suffer the most from the Government's cuts in social welfare.

Year on year pensioners, who have the lowest state pension in the EU, die in their thousands.

Successive governments have given a low priority towards its older citizens when it comes to their welfare. Pensioners have made their contribution to Britain. Many worked hard and long hours to build our country after a devastating war.

They experienced food rationing and shortages while Europe rebuilt.

We are not a burden to the country but an asset. Some pay income tax and all pay value added tax. We are all tax payers.

Pensioners continue to make a contribution to the economy, they are unpaid childminders,volunteers in hospitals and for charities.

The raising of VAT to 20 per cent bears no relation to the ability to pay.The Government's programme of cuts is ideologically driven-rather than out of economic necessity.

It is wrong that the city fat cats in the banking industry are expecting a total bonus payout in the region of £7billion.

With tax evasion now at a staggering sum of £121billion, Government should seek out those wealthy individuals along with big business who are getting away with it.

Government should start at the top with cuts not hit us at the bottom. Pensioners are not responsible for the mess the country is in.

Make those who caused it pay.

Dennis Brett.

We are also pleased that the project provides ongoing high quality volunteering opportunities for 16 to 25-year-olds as well as providing an exciting alternative and compliment to the already developing cultural scene in Milton Keynes.

At present we are keen to build our audiences and hope that more people will take the opportunity to visit the Buszy Cinema for a very different night out.

We have worked with colleagues across the country to ensure that our boutique cinema is working on a national ideal that means film is offered in exciting ways to engage communities who would not normally access mainstream cinema or independent film itself.

Animals and fireworks

SIR – With Hallowe'en, the Hindu festival of Diwali and Bonfire Night approaching, the fireworks season seems to go on longer than ever, but please spare a thought for the animals and birds who are terrified by the deafening crashes.

Traumatised dogs are rushed to vets for emergency treatment; sheep can spontaneously abort; horses gallop into fences; and rabbits have been known to die from the shock.

Animal Aid believes that, for the sake of all animals, fireworks should be sold only to organisers of public events and not to individuals wishing to set them off in their gardens or in the street.

A ban on sales to the general public would also prevent the terrible cruelties reported every year of vicious individuals deliberately harming animals by tying fireworks to them.

For anyone who cares for animals, please keep cats and dogs indoors from the afternoon onwards and bring rabbits and guinea pigs inside as well (or at least cover their home with a thick blanket to muffle the noise).

Also, be sure to check that hedgehogs and other wild animals have not made a home in your bonfire before you light it.

Ashley Owen
Animal Aid

Sort out schools

SIR – We have also recently moved in to Milton Keynes.

I have two children, year ten and year nine, still at home because I am appealing the local school, which says it is oversubscribed.

I say concentrate on expanding schools and hiring more teachers rather than disruptive road works.

Building new secondary schools for the future isn't going to solve the problems we are having now.

The school allocated to us is far away and defeats the purpose of why we moved into our local catchment area school.

Council surveyor took backhanders

A COUNCIL employee has been sent to prison for eight months after pleading guilty to Corrupt Acts by a Public Agent.

Parminder Singh Dhap, 29, from Oak Road, Bedford, was sentenced at Huntingdon Crown Court on Monday after pleading guilty to four counts on September 22.

In February 2008 Milton Keynes Council contacted Thames Valley Police to report that it had become aware an employee was taking private payments for doing work which was part of his role within the council as a trainee surveyor.

A local builder alerted the council after Dhap approached him offering to reduce the cost of having a restricted covenant lifted, if he agreed to pay half of the cost to Dhap directly.

Dhap was immediately suspended while the council conducted an internal investigation, which ultimately resulted in his dismissal.

The council then handed over all the evidence it had gathered to Thames Valley Police.

Dhap began working for the council in 2001, and in January 2007 he moved into a trainee surveyor position.

Part of his role was to assess and cost of work requested by tenants and owners of property, which was owned or previously owned by Milton Keynes Council.

Primarily, Dhap was dealing with covenants on properties.

DC Wendy Fellowes, who led the investigation, said: "Today's conviction is a result of a two-year investigation between Thames Valley Police and Milton Keynes Council into Parminder Dhap and those who made payments corruptly in return for reduced rate work.

"I would like to thank the witnesses who came forward and reported the corrupt behaviour of Dhap and to Milton Keynes Council for their full support throughout the investigation and for working closely with us to bring this man to justice."

He was sentenced to eight months for each offence, to be served concurrently.

A spokesman for the council's corporate anti-fraud team said: "This case demonstrates that we take whistle blowing referrals very seriously, and we will robustly pursue any such wrongdoing, whoever is responsible, in order to protect the local taxpayer's interests. This case also demonstrated that we have good working relationships with our external partners, in this case Thames Valley Police."

Two people have also received cautions for Corrupting a Public Agent, Prevention of Corruption Act 1906, by making payments to Dhap.

Haircut a snip for tip-shy Gascoigne

FORMER World Cup football star Paul Gascoigne visited a city salon, just three days before his court appearance.

Mr Gascoigne visited Braids Salon in the centre:mk, and left a tip of only £1.50, despite the cut only costing him £8.

Marian Lofty, hairdresser at Braids Salon, said she was the first person to realise who he was, not even the customer having his hair done next to him recognised Gascoigne.

Marian, 29, of CMK, said: "He came in on Saturday morning at around 10.30 to 11am.

"He said he'd been visiting his friends in Milton Keynes, and had been out the night before to the Living Room.

"When I sat him down, I asked him if he was who I thought he was and if he minded me telling my colleagues. He said I could and he was really nice to everyone, and was more than happy to sign autographs. He was really pleasant, and very tidy-looking.

"He said he was going back home after he left the salon, and that he was really happy wit the cut.

"I cut his hair, he said he wanted it short. My colleague was so gutted - he's a huge football fan."

Marian Lofty cuts Paul Gascoigne's hair at Braids Hairdressers

*Paul Gascoigne was arrested by Northumbria Police on suspicion of possessing class A drugs after a raid at a house in North Tyneside last Thursday.

The arrest came only a day after the 43-year-old was told by magistrates in Newcastle he could face up to three months in jail, in addition to a driving ban, after being caught driving while four times over the alcohol limit.

The GB senior mixed dragon boat team paddling to a new Guinness World Record on Derwentwater in Cumbria

City paddlers enter the dragon boat record book

DRAGON boat world records were broken when 20 paddlers left Caldecotte Lake for Derwentwater in the Lake District.

The GB senior mixed dragon boat team and other guests, paddled 109 miles in 24 hours, breaking the existing record by 4.4 miles.

The record-breaking team trained at Caldecotte Lake for two years, before tackling the 50 laps of Derwentwater for the challenge.

Team fitness coach, Richard Parrott, said: "It was a gruelling task, and keeping on the pace was tough, especially going into the early hours, but team spirit and the charity goal kept us going.

"We didn't quite medal in the European Championships but all our hard work for that provided a solid base making this achievement possible."

Dragon boats races are usually only 500m and Robin Oakley, of the GB senior mixed dragon boat team, said: "We were just paddling, and paddling and sitting, and sitting on a hard, hard wooden bench."

The planned start was 10am but due to high winds delayed it by three hours, but despite adverse weather, the team still reached their goal.

Technical coach John Creaser said: "The secret to endurance, beyond the obvious physical and mental toughness, is to paddle smarter and minimise the effort but get optimal speed from it. We focused on this, and worked hard to maintain our timing and style."

Paddler and unofficial manager, Sally Collison, said: "This was the brainchild of my husband, team manager Chris, Richard and Gary Corr, and he helped with the organising. Unfortunately he's stuck in Africa chasing pirates at the moment, but he was here with us in spirit."

Phone stolen in underpass

A FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD boy was robbed on an underpass in Campbell Park.

The boy was approached at around 3pm when walking through the underpass under the V8 Marlborough Street, when two men approached him, pushed him over, and stole his mobile phone.

The first offender is black, around 5ft 8ins, slim, with broad shoulders. He was wearing a black hooded jumper, black gloves, black bottoms, and had a plain black scarf wrapped across his face.

The second offender is black, around 6ft, slim, and aged in his late teens. His hair is described as thick on top and thinned out at the bottom and his nose peaks in the middle, as though he had a bump in it. He was wearing a red flat cap which had 'NY' in white written on the front, a black jacket, black, stone-coloured jeans and white trainers.

Anyone with information should contact DC Tejinder Sidhu at Milton Keynes police station via the 24-hour Police Enquiry Centre on 0845 8 505 505 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Coachway delays cost extra £350k

THE temporary Coachway would have cost taxpayers £350,000 less had the new facility not been delayed.

The makeshift passenger terminal in Campbell Park was erected in Spring 2008 following the demolition of the old Junction 14 building.

A new Brook Furlong-based Coachway was originally due to be unveiled in January 2009, and the temporary version closed.

But due to shortfalls in funding, drainage problems and lengthy legal contract wrangles, the opening date was pushed back several times and is now due open on December 13.

The cost of the temporary Coachway has run to £850,000, but had it closed in January 2009 it would only have cost £508,883.44.

The original 2009 opening was delayed due to a shortfall of £600,000 in funds, but transport supremo Cllr Vanessa McPake has defended the cost of the temporary building, saying the 2009 opening date had never actually been agreed by the council cabinet.

She said: "We couldn't stop having coaches coming to Milton Keynes so obviously it was necessary to extend the temporary Coachway. There were original plans but those were never agreed by cabinet.

"They had to rejig the design in line with the monies and a new opening date was agreed which was Spring 2010.

"The problems since spring have been due to drainage issues and the legal dotting of 'Is' and crossing of 'Ts'.

"I feel it was very very important to keep Coachway open. It's not a big deal."

House robbers use knife and hammer

TWO Wolverton men were tied-up and threatened with a knife and hammer by robbers who stole around £10,000 of goods.

Two men knocked at the door of the property and when it was opened the occupier was punched in the face and threatened with a knife. The second offender ran into the living room - both of the men in the house were then tied together with tape and threatened with a hammer.

The two offenders stole property which included mobile phones, a DELL laptop and various antique items,which they put in two large bags.

One of the victims suffered a bloody nose and the other a cut to his wrist, which was caused by the knife.

Both men are white, in their early twenties and were wearing dark clothing and gloves. One is about 5ft 6ins, with blond, reddish hair and blue eyes and the other about 5ft 8ins with dark eyebrows. One spoke with a local accent.

The incident took place on 18 October at 8.45pm.

DC Wayne Watson, leading the investigation, said: "We have a number of witnesses who saw the offenders making off from the scene. However, we are keen to trace anyone who may have been offered any distinctive antique items in the last week to call the police. This was a violent attack and the victims are traumatised by what happened. I would urge anyone with information about this incident to call me."

If you have any information contact DC Watson at Milton Keynes police station via the 24-hour non-emergency number, 0845 8 505 505 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Boy rape arrest

THE alleged rape of a 15-year-old boy at a house in Conniburrow on October 16 is being investigated by police.

A 31-year-old man from Downs Barn has been arrested and is currently on conditional bail until November 19.

Anyone with any information about the incident should contact the Police Enquiry Centre on 0845 8 505 505. If you don't want to speak to police or leave your name, call the charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Dear Ms Wheatcroft,

Erection of Tesco Store at Aston Martin Tickford St Newport Pagnell: Ref No 10/03915/FUL

I am writing to you to register my objection to this planning application.

Newport Pagnell High St and Community: The large supermarket will compete directly with many shops on the High St and draw custom and activity away from the town centre causing irreparable damage.

Government and Local Authority Policies: Government policy is to enhance town centres and this approach is confirmed by the policies set out in the Milton Keynes Local Plan (2005). The Milton Keynes Council's planning guidance (2007) for the Aston Martin site confirms that 'major retail development would not be acceptable'.

Impact on the Amenity of Newport Residents: The noise and disruption caused by the major increase in traffic in the area will impact on all residents of the town. The car park will hold 237 cars attracting over 2Million additional cars per annum from/to all areas of the Town and surrounding areas.

I request the Council to REFUSE the application for the major Tesco supermarket at Tickford Street Newport Pagnell.

Yours sincerely

Law change could halt vote queues

10pm polling station closure saw people turned away

MP MARK Lancaster has called for a change in the law following the problems at May's general election count.

Mr Lancaster, whose Milton Keynes North constituency was affected by large queues, late counting and mixed-up ballot boxes, spoke in a debate in Westminster Hall last Wednesday.

His was one of the 11 constituencies which formed the focus of an investigation by the Electoral Commission.

During the debate, Mr Lancaster drew attention to the Newport Pagnell polling station which saw ballots for two separate wards in the council election mixed up.

He went on to outline the delay in counting votes, which began at 4.18am when Electoral Commission guidelines stipulate a 2am start.

MK North MP Mark Lancaster

This was due not to increased turnout but to the local election taking place on the same evening, according to Mr Lancaster.

In fact, turnout was actually 62.8 per cent – down on the 64 per cent in 2005 and far less than the 81 per cent of 1992.

Mr Lancaster said: "Given the relatively small geographical area covered by Milton Keynes Unitary Authority, which has a common boundary with the two parliamentary seats, the general view was that that was an unnecessarily long period to wait."

The most significant problem, he said, was the large queues that formed at polling stations on the evening of May 6.

Acting returning officer John Moffoot, whose actions Mr Lancaster supported, was forced to defy Electoral Commission rules and suspend the 10pm voting cut off point in Wyvern School, Wolverton, where more than 150 people were still queuing.

He said: "Given the complications experienced in Milton Keynes, I should be grateful to know whether the Minister believes there is reason for concern and the potential for the same problems to occur again next May, when some polling stations may have to deal with three separate elections on the same day."

Specifically he asked for a review of the 10pm cut-off so people will not be turned away in future, adding: "I fear similar occurrences in future elections if the problem is not addressed."

Mr Lancaster was joined by MP for Milton Keynes South, Iain Stewart, who outlined the issues with individual voters' registration.

Savers see rise in chimney fires

Householders turning to open fires as the cost of fuel increases

Firefighters at the scene of a recent chimney fire

CHIMNEY fires are on the increase due to people trying to save money on heating, say the fire service.

There have already been 15 chimney fires in the city so far - in 2007 there were 13 for the whole year.

And last year the figure was 28 - more than double what it was in 2007.

Community safety manager Terry Ridgley said: "With the colder months looming, people will begin to start using open fires and their chimneys again. It appears that more and more people are using open fires and wood burners because of the rising costs of gas, electricity and oil.

"In order to keep you and your family safe from fire, you need to take necessary steps such as ensuring your chimney is swept regularly.

"I would also urge all householders to have working smoke alarms in their homes."

A spokesman for the fire service also explained that due to a change in lifestyle, people are favouring traditional-style open fires, but are not always having them cleared out correctly.

He added: "It's sometimes due to how they have been cleared out. If it's not done properly, you can end up with gaps in the chimney which can lead to fires."

Dons game dedicated to the Armed Forces

Members from Naval Cadet Corps TS Invincible

A SPECIAL game took place at the Dons on Saturday to raise funds for Care for Casualties.

The Armed Forces Day saw representatives from local British Legions, cadets and 7th Rifles, Territorial Infantry Battalion from Blakelands.

Fans were also treated to music from the Waterloo Band and the bugles of the Rifles, and a parade at half-time from 1 Signal Squadron, the Bucks Army Cadet Force, the Parachute Regiment Association, the Milton Keynes Air Training Cadets, the Sea Cadets and the Naval Cadet Corps, among representatives from the Royal British Legion and the Milton Keynes Dons Supporters Association (the MKDSA).

The Dons were also accompanied by two mascots – six-year-old Cameron Nicholls and seven-year-old Ethan Cornish. These two boys both lost their fathers on the same day.

L/Cpl Ross Nicholls of the Household Cavalry Regiment was killed in Afghanistan on August 1, 2006, and Matthew Cornish was killed serving with First Battalion, The Light Infantry – now known as the Fifth Rifles.

The mascots carried out the match ball and tossed the coin on behalf of the referee.

Shed builder flouts trading regulations

THE owner of a property maintenance company has been convicted after pleading guilty to misleading a customer.

Trader Bruce Hart-Davies, owner of Newport Pagnell-based LnB Services, appeared at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court on Friday.

Magistrates sentenced Hart-Davies to a two-year conditional discharge and awarded £1,200 in costs to the council after he pleaded guilty to one charge under the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008 and to another charge under the Cancellation of Contracts made in a Consumer's Home or Place of Work Regulations 2008.

Hart-Davies failed to give one of his customers a 'cooling off' period, and used the TrustMark logo on business paperwork when he was not authorised to do so.

The court heard how, earlier this year, a 79-year-old man in Bletchley had been denied his right to cancel after he had arranged to have a shed built in his back garden.

The subsequent investigation by Trading Standards revealed that, although Hart-Davies claimed to be a member of Government-endorsed body TrustMark, which helps consumers to identify reliable and trustworthy tradesmen, he had never applied for membership to this organisation.

Karen Ford, trading standards manager for Milton Keynes Council said: "Bruce Hart-Davies obtained this work by misleading a vulnerable customer and denying him his cancellation rights.

"I'm delighted that the court passed a sentence which reflects the seriousness of this matter.

"Milton Keynes Trading Standards will continue to work to protect consumers from anyone who attempts to mislead people in this way. We will advise traders of their legal requirements and what they need to do to comply with the law."

Cllr Mike Galloway, who has responsibility for Trading Standards, added: "Trading Standards officers are continuing to clamp down on rogue traders.

"The council takes a tough line on those who deliberately set out to mislead consumers and deny them their rights.

"A salesman trying to sell you something on your doorstep could be anyone. Talk to family, friends or neighbours if you are worried or contact Consumer Direct or your local Trading Standards department."

Consumers with any complaints about a trader should contact Consumer Direct on 08454 04 05 06.

Firefighters rescue woman from first floor window

A WOMAN was rescued from a house fire in Wolverton early on Sunday morning.

Three fire crews were called to the fire on the ground floor of an end-of-terrace property in Western Road, around 2.30am, and found the woman trapped in an upstairs room.

Firefighters rescued her from a first-floor window.

Station manager Dave Norris, who attended the incident, said: "The fire was on the ground floor by the front door and the house was starting to fill with smoke.

"After being rescued by firefighters, the woman was taken to hospital by ambulance suffering from smoke inhalation."

Firefighters were at the scene for about 90 minutes, and a crew returned at 6.30am to carry out a reinspection.

COMPREHENSIVE SPENDING REVIEW

The end of spend, spend, spend

Following the Government's Comprehensive Spending Review last Wednesday, Milton Keynes' public services and businesses have been assessing the impact. Reporter ADAM GRINSELL gets their reaction

> Things are tough, but we knew they were coming and I don't think there were any new surprises
> Rita Spada, chief executive of Milton Keynes Chamber of Commerce

COUNCIL

THE cabinet's member for finance and resources, Sam Crooks, said he thinks the council will now be £1 million more short each year than originally feared.

This means the revenue budget, from which the council pays for regular services like refuse collection, will be cut by £66 million in total over the next four years.

But Cllr Crooks said the real surprise was the cut to the capital budget, which is used for one-off major spends like new roads.

He said: "We modelled a 25 per cent cut, but we hoped it might not be as high as that.

"As far as we can see, we will have to take a 45 per cent cut, which equals £23 million over four years. This will mean less investment in new projects."

He added he is waiting for detail of where that will fall, but the most worrying thing was the removal of £138 million of financial support for Project Reduce, the large waste disposal contract between Milton Keynes and Northamptonshire.

It is not now certain that this will go ahead.

He also hopes the expected job losses will not be any more than the 600 announced last month.

POLICE

THAMES Valley Police (TVP) cannot yet gauge how Milton Keynes will be affected, though they are beginning to assess the impact on the force as a whole.

Chief Constable Sara Thornton said: "I've always felt a cut of more than 10 per cent in police budgets will be very difficult and could lead to noticeable reductions in service. The CSR has now announced a 16 per cent total cut over the next four years."

The central police grant for the coming years will be announced in December, so the force cannot yet speculate on how many roles may go and whether there will be any redundancies or cuts to front-line services.

Ms Thornton added: "The savings will come from a number of different schemes. We are going to work more closely with our colleagues in Hampshire. We have already agreed that all our Information Technology and Information Management departments are going to be joined up, which will save about £6 million per annum.

"We will also be looking at taking out a layer of management in our BCUs and stream-lining processes."

NHS

NHS Milton Keynes will have to save the equivalent of £104 million in the next four years, from a budget that currently stands at £338 million.

This means it will have to "carefully consider what changes need to be made to healthcare provision".

A spokesman said: "We are already cutting duplication and encouraging services to work more closely together while maintaining the high-quality, safe health care the people of Milton Keynes deserve but this alone won't be enough to keep the local NHS affordable.

"NHS Milton Keynes has undergone a staff restructure this autumn, reducing posts from 156 full time posts to 118, in order to achieve the required annual staff savings of £1.75 million."

> We're already actively engaged in a number of cost-saving activities
> Chief Fire Officer Mark Jones,

FIRE

FIRE and rescue services in England will receive a grant reduction of 25 per cent over a four-year period from 2011.

Buckinghamshire & Milton Keynes Fire Authority said this is in line with what it was expecting, so they have not come as a shock.

Mark Jones, chief fire officer, said: "We're already actively engaged in a number of cost-saving activities.

"Recruitment controls for all but essential posts have been in place since January, and we are discussing the possibility of shared backroom services with other organisations.

"I am confident that, in the first two years, we can make the required adjustments without significant impacts upon public safety and our response to emergency calls."

PRIVATE SECTOR

RITA Spada, chief executive of Milton Keynes Chamber of Commerce, said there is a good opportunity for the business community, but it needs to get a quick grasp on the situation.

She said: "Overall things are tough, but we knew they were coming and I don't think there were any new surprises. But we now need to draw a line, say this is the situation, and how do we deal with it?

"It's going to take about at least a month for people to digest everything. We've got to be clear about how we're going to play it.

"We need vision.

"We've got a lot to bring to the table. The local council and police need us as a business community to see what the need is, and work on this together.

"We've got to be clear where we want to be, and set our vision to be number one. Why can we not operate in the same sphere as Milan and Madrid?"

Paul Abbott (BT MK FTTP project manager) during his presentation at the launch of superfast broadband

Broadband in Bradwell Abbey

THIS is a behind-the-scenes look at BT's super-fast broadband trial in the city.

Homes and business in Bradwell Abbey are now using the technology, which could see Internet speeds of up to 100 megabytes per second.

If successful, BT hopes to deliver these super-fast speeds to 10 million premises by 2012.

A BT spokesman said: "We're learning here the best practices for rolling out to the rest of the UK. It's about best practice and what we learn here will help improve our service.

"It's really important that we get the feedback on business and home experience so we can improve that as we go forward."

The technology, called fibre-to-the-premise (FTTP), involves running fibre-optic cable from an exchange directly to the customer's premises, and could eventually deliver Internet download speeds of up to 1,000 megabytes per second.

Bradwell Abbey was chosen as it is a 'brownfield' site – an area where copper services are already provided directly to premises.

I'm A Celebrity star to appear at church hall

COMEDIAN Bobby Ball will be making an appearance in Oldbrook on Saturday to officially open a new church hall and community facility.

Milton Keynes Christian Centre (MKCC) will welcome the I'm A Celebrity... star for a special show, after its opening by Mayor Debbie Brock at 6.30pm.

Everyone is welcome to come and see the new facility and take part in music and dance activities from 12-4pm.

Pastor Billie Richie said: "As well as a being a church we believe that Milton Keynes Christian Centre is a great facility for the whole parish. Our church needs to be active in serving our local area and we hope that these new facilities will allow us to welcome even more people through our doors."

Work on the centre started in November 2009 after MKCC approached Milton Keynes Partnership (MKP) to help them explore the options for expanding their premises to accommodate the growing community need. MKP provided land at a nominal cost and helped to facilitate the build process.

The new church hall has seating for 600 people, and features new audio visual equipment and a purpose-built baptism pool.

Bobby Ball will be making an appearance in Oldbrook on Saturday

In addition, a multi-purpose space has been created to grow the existing community activities run by MKCC such as FoodBank, Parent & Toddlers, Senior Citizens Group and children's clubs.

The new facility will also be home to a coffee shop with a large seating area and will eventually have free WiFi access for the local community. There are also smaller rooms which are able to be hired out.

Tim Roxburgh, director of Milton Keynes Partnership said, "We are pleased to have been able to work with the Milton Keynes Christian Centre to enable them to create these new facilities. The church provides a range services to the whole community, regardless of faith and this extension will allow them to do even more."

Restaurants up for 'curry Oscars'

THREE city restaurants have been shortlisted for the British Curry Awards.

The Calcutta Brasserie, St Pauls Court, Stony Stratford, Jaipur, Grafton Gate East and the Rajdhani, Midsummer Boulevard are all among 99 restaurants across the country battling it out for this prestigious award.

Part-owner of the Rajdhani, Sonour Ali, said: "I am very excited for us to have had a nomination, and to have made it to this stage.

"It's the biggest award you can go for in the industry – it's like going for an Oscar.

"We hope we can win best restaurant – we've been here 13 years. It happens every year, but this must be our lucky year."

The 2010 awards ceremony will be presented by comedian Justin Lee Collins at the Grosvenor House Hotel, London, on November 21.

The event will be star-studded with guests such as as Chris Tarrant, Gary Rhodes, Heston Blumenthal, Ken Livingstone, Eamonn Holmes, Nick Ferrari, Rageh Omaar, David 'Kid' Jensen and James Whale attending and presenting awards.

Justin Lee Collins said: "Everyone loves a good curry, so to be hosting an awards night celebrating the Great British curry is both an honour and a pleasure.

"Curries are such an important part of life in this country, so it's great the public has had an opportunity to help celebrate their favourite restaurants."

Awards organiser, Enam Ali MBE, said: "This is the sixth year of the British Curry Awards and the standards get higher every year. To reach the shortlist is a tremendous achievement.

"Interest in the competition has been greater than ever this year. We received more than 67,000 nominations from members of the public which is the highest ever. It just goes to show the tremendous support there is out there for Britain's favourite food."

Compost those autumn leaves and you can win Cash for Trash!

AS autumn leaves begin to fall, don't forget you can put them in your green wheeled bin.

Similarly, leftover Halloween pumpkins can also go in with your food and garden waste. Simply by putting your bin out, together with your pink sacks and blue box, you could be a winner in Cash for Trash, our recycling incentive scheme which gives away two £100 prizes each week to residents who are recycling correctly.

If your address is chosen at random by our computer, a member of the council's recycling team will come along to your property early in the morning on collection day (before the refuse crew takes it away) and check to see if you are recycling.

Make sure you're not giving money away to your neighbours, because if the winning household does not have any recycling, we move on to the nearest neighbour who does!

In recent weeks we have visited Netherfield, Conniburrow, Monkston, Eaglestone, Loughton, Newport Pagnell and Olney we could be coming to your area anytime soon.

We welcome pink sacks full of plastic bottles, cans, aluminium foil, paper, cardboard, aerosols, clean plastic food packaging and waxed cartons.

But blue boxes containing glass bottles and jars and your green wheeled bin with food and garden waste also count towards winning the prize.

Community Waste, from our Wolverton recycling facility, gives away a cheque for £100, while our refuse and recycling contractor Serco offers £100 of Love2shop gift vouchers which can be redeemed at many high street outlets.

For more information on the Cash for Trash scheme, see a gallery of some of our recent winners and to check out the rules in full, visit www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/cashfortrash

2,500 hats off to the Big Knit fundraisers

STRIPEY, bobble, strawberry-shaped, and some in the shape of a snowman and a Halloween pumpkin – Age UK Milton Keynes' first foray into the Big Knit fundraiser has been a triumph of skill and odd bits of wool.

By each knitting a little woolly hat, hundreds of people have helped raise £600 for the local charity that provides services and support for older people in Milton Keynes.

Fundraising manager Chris Large said: "We have been sent more tiny football supporters' hats than you can shake a large knitting needle at.

"We feared that our initial target of 1,000 hats may have been over-ambitious, but not a bit of it.

"The residents of Milton Keynes have been magnificent. The grand total of hats knitted for the Big Knit 2010 in Milton Keynes is 2,517.

"We have had such fun hearing why people wanted to join in the Big Knit and never knew from one day to the next what would turn up in the post.

"A few people have knitted more than a hundred little hats, lots of people at craft clubs and knitting groups have joined in, creating works of art in wool. We are already looking forward to doing it all over again next year."

Age UK Milton Keynes has also launched a Christmas Appeal to help continue its valuable services for older people in Milton Keynes.

Any donations should be sent to Chris Large at The Peartree Centre, 1 Chadds Lane, Peartree Bridge, Milton Keynes, MK6 3EB.

Paint your wagon time at truckers

THE famous orange of express delivery giant TNT is more green than you might think.

The business-to-business delivery company has been awarded the Carbon Trust Standard, an endorsement of its efforts in reducing carbon emissions.

Awarded to organisations going the extra mile in trying to cut their carbon footprint, independent assessors examined how TNT has managed to reduce carbon emissions and it will continuing to do so in the future.

Different initiatives at TNT Milton Keynes, on Northfield Drive, Northfield, have contributed to the company's overall reduction in carbon emissions.

Harry Morrison, general manager of the Carbon Trust Standard Company, said: "Achieving the Carbon Trust Standard allows TNT Milton Keynes to talk with integrity about the serious and credible steps it has taken to reduce its carbon emissions. It also provides the company with audited emissions data they need to build the appropriate carbon reduction strategies and deliver on their ongoing carbon commitment."

Neil Griffiths, director of health safety and environmental at TNT, added: "The Carbon Trust Standard validates and recognises our work to reduce TNT's environmental impact and the financial and carbon savings made. It also proves that we have a long-term commitment to continue to cut our carbon footprint."

TNT, through its global carbon reduction programme Planet Me, has made a commitment to improve CO2 efficiency by 45 per cent by 2020 across its global operations.

The company also became the first in its sector to introduce a 51-strong fleet of zero-emission delivery trucks, which operate across depots throughout the UK.

The 7.5-tonne Smith Electric Newton lorries are the largest all-electric trucks of their kind and cost just 7p per mile in electricity to run. The vehicles, which have a 70-mile radius on one full charge, are topped up overnight at TNT depots.

Harry Morrison, CEO of the Carbon Trust, left, and Neil Griffiths, director of health safety and environmental of TNT transform a zero emission TNT truck from orange to green

City MP pleased Sure Start services are safe

MP for Milton Keynes South, Iain Stewart, has welcomed the recent announcement by Chancellor George Osborne to protect Sure Start services.

In his speech to Parliament during the comprehensive spending review, Mr Osborne said: "We will also provide support for the early years of our children... Sure Start services will be protected in cash terms and the programme will be focused on its original purpose."

This announcement was particularly pleasing to the local MP because of his recent experience at Little Paws Sure Start Centre in Simpson where he met Shelly Scobbie, a user of the Sure Start services.

Three years ago, while six months pregnant and temporarily separated from her husband, Shelly was helped by staff to find a course at MK College from where she has now received her qualification as a fitness instructor and currently runs her own business.

Mr Stewart said: "My recent experience at Little Paws Sure Start centre reinforced to me the vital service the programme offers. Little Paws and centres like it across my constituency provide real one-stop shops for families, offering many different ways of supporting them – from play activities to parenting advice.

"The stories I heard of how this centre has helped parents into training and work is truly remarkable."

MP Iain Stewart with Raksha Patel, Little Paws co-ordinator, and Shelly Scobbie

Headteacher Melanie Mercer (right) with first day pupils from 1940 of Aspley Guise Lower School

Original pupils help celebrate at school's 70th birthday party

IT was an emotional day at Aspley Guise Lower School on Friday as former pupils remembered their first day at the school 70 years ago.

To celebrate the school's moving to its new site in Spinney Lane on the October 21, 1940 many of those who were pupils on that opening day were able to attend the party.

Children from the classes of 2010 performed songs through the decades interspersed with historical anecdotes about the school and 1940 pupils then cut a cake to share with today's pupils.

Former pupils reminisced how they walked in a 'snake' holding hands up Mount Pleasant to the new school and the school log book states: 'We opened the New School this morning with 79 children. We are all very thrilled with our beautiful surroundings and full of good resolutions. At 11am we heard bombs dropping so we adjourned to the cloakrooms.' How many schools can feature that on its day of opening?

Today's headteacher Melanie Mercer said: "This was such an important occasion for us; not just in celebrating 70 years of the school but, in being able to share that celebration with those who were present at the time, we could bring history to life for the children."

SIMON DARNELL

MY WICKED HEART
Diana Vickers

AS pop songs go, My Wicked Heart is as mad as a box of frogs.
Any old fool can do a song that has quiet verses and loud choruses, but what La Vickers has done here is a little bit different.
The first verse starts off all quiet and serene, although it's obviously going to kick off at some point.
The verse ends and sure enough, all hell breaks loose... but only for a couple of seconds. After that it all goes quiet again as the second verse comes in instead, and THEN the song explodes into life.
Basically, what this song is is a great big party compressed into three minutes and because it's a bit different and completely off its tree I'm going to recommend it, so there.

SAFE
Westlife
WELL, the song title sums up this band's musical output nicely.
This'll be the regular-as-clockwork November comeback single, to be followed no doubt by an album issued at just the right time to go on people's Christmas wish-lists, then I'm guessing there'll be one more single in the New Year before the band goes back into hibernation until next autumn.
What we have this time round is a downtempo number that starts with a piano, has some heartfelt singing, the drums kicking in for the second verse and the gradual build-up until the inevitable big finish.
Regulation issue Westlife in other words. Believe it or not, I actually WANT this band to release a decent single, but it's looking less and less likely as the decades pass.

BACK TO SCRATCH
Charlotte Church

MAYBE it's just the way my head works, but the verses of this tune remind me a little of the Beautiful South's You Keep It All In.
Different melody, certainly very different lyrics, but it feels familiar.
Actually, come to think of it that's this song all over.
It's familiar, gentle, cosy, completely non-threatening and utterly safe, but not safe as in boring or twee. Back To Scratch is that rarest of beasts, a song that's very, very nice and yet at the same time it somehow manages not to be very, very naff.

Written especially for parents to enjoy with their children. The production is a charming tale about the magic of family and of course the importance of a nice wrarm hug!

So join Steven and a host of wild characters including Natascha the Witch and Karen the Koala for some great stories, sing along songs, superb games and first class hugging.

All you need are your ears and your arms.

THE CRUCIBLE

Black Ram Theatre Company

Tuesday 9 and Wednesday 10, November.

ARTHUR Miller's chilling masterpiece set in the remote puritan village of Salem, Massachusetts in 1692 depicts the infamous witch-hunt that turned an entire community against itself. This gripping classic tale of one of humanity's darkest days shows the grim underbelly of religion and early civilised society, and the violent consequences of cowardice and jealousy.

Several young girls and a slave, Tituba, are caught playacting at casting spells. To avoid punishment, they falsely accuse neighbors of witchcraft. Fueled by fears, jealousy, secrets, lies, and greed, residents turn on each other resulting in mass paranoia and death. Arthur Miller's play uses the destructive power of socially sanctioned violence unleashed by the rumours of witchcraft as a powerful parable about McCarthyism and the infamous hearings of the 1950s.

Black Ram Theatre Company brings The Crucible to life in fear and fascination. They combine the text with film and computer animation, with actors onstage interacting with those onscreen in a visually stunning and unique theatrical experience.

A fiery revenge epic brought to you by one of East Anglia's leading touring theatre companies.

CAT SHOW

Sunday, November 7

TREAT the kids to a day out with a difference at The Felis Brittanica Winners' Show, on Sunday, November 7 at Stantonbury Leisure Centre.

Hundreds of cats; small ones, tall ones, fluffy ones, bald ones, will be on show especially for you!

With loads of awards up for grabs, all our furry friends are nervously awaiting their big moment and secretly hoping they might have a chance of being crowned 'Best in Show'.

Meet the cats and their owners, then watch the world-renowned judges at work and see if you can second-guess them before they award the prizes.

Are you a cat lover or perhaps just cat-curious?

Come along and enjoy the day, bring your friends, family and neighbours – the more the merrier.

At the bargain price of just £3 for adults and £1 for children under 14, this feline fiesta is guaranteed to make you smile.

The show runs from 9.30am-4pm and awards will be presented throughout the day.

ANOTHER HAPPY CLIENT

To Vanessa

This comes to say how much help Devin Hipkin was in helping us secure the offer on our property in Emerson Valley.

We met Devin from the beginning when we wanted to go for another property and I'd noted him for his dedication to his job. He is professional and knows what a client needs and we didn't need to say too much. He does his duty with a passion and I know he loves what he does and sees to it that both parties are happy. There were times he started work so early and would finish late just to get things working.

In fact Devin would always ask if one is happy with all the processes and procedures. We need more agents like Devin. He said he'll make it happen and he did. Thanks Devin and keep up the good work. God bless you Devin and thanks Taylors for making it happen. I'll always recommend Taylors Estate Agents because of this and would always come back.

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

SOME people might have thought the first half on Saturday wasn't up to our usual standards, but when you look at the circumstances, a 1-0 win over a good Exeter team should be seen as a good result.

The manager chose his words well at half-time and the players clearly responded.

We had Dean Lewington, Peter Leven, Didi Hamann and Angelo Balanta missing for various reasons, plus Sam Baldock and Stephen Gleeson only just coming back from injury and Jemal Johnson just back from his loan.

Luke Chadwick deserves a lot of credit for playing through the pain barrier of late, he's been superhuman.

Aaron did a fantastic job playing in such adversity following the death of his grandmother.

I know what it feels like to have to deal with football so soon after a personal bereavement and we were all so chuffed for him to get the goal for her.

Defensively, the boys put their bodies on the line when they needed to and David made a few saves, but he was hardly being peppered. Exeter played some good football and dominated the ball for long periods, but didn't create too many chances.

I was also pleased for Mark Carrington to come on and show his quality by setting up the goal.

We know the importance of starting to win some points on the road, starting with Saturdays trip to Tranmere.

Three of our last four away games have been against the current top three, so were not too worried, but it]s time we got it right. We're hoping to have Dean back from injury by then and Peters available after suspension, so hopefully we can take a good crowd up there and come away with a good result.

I must admit, as a Celtic fan, I was bracing myself for some stick from the three big Rangers boys on my way into the stadium after their win on Sunday. Peter Leven, Gary MacKenzie and Alex Rae gave me a bit of banter, but I have to admit that Rangers deserved their win on the day.

Aaron Wilbraham fires in the winner

Wilbraham decider dedicated to 'Nana'

MK DONS 1 EXETER CITY 0

Wilbraham 53

BY SIMONE CORGAN

simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

AARON Wilbraham's first league goal of the season will go down as one of his most memorable.

The striker has scored better goals, shown more skill in the build up, and netted in games far more vital than Exeter City at home.

However, few will be associated with such touching sentiment.

As Wilbraham wheeled away to celebrate what proved to be the only goal in the game, he peeled of his MK Dons shirt to reveal a specially made T-shirt in honour of his 'Nana'.

Just 24 hours prior to the game Wilbraham learnt his grandmother, Margaret, had passed away.

Boss Karl Robinson offered Wilbraham, who turned 31 last Thursday, compassionate leave, but the Knutsford-born man wanted to put on a performance in memory of his beloved Nana.

He said: "I knew that my Nana would want me to play and she'd want me to score, so I'm really proud of the boys for making it a big team performance and getting that result for her.

"My Dad died when I was younger, so she basically brought me up, paid for my school trips, school shoes, football boots – she was really close to me.

"My Mum didn't have much money so my Nan bought me my first pair of football boots. They were £2.50 from a charity shop and I scored 101 goals in them playing as an under-12 for Middlewich Town."

Wilbraham's strike, which came via a wonderful cross from Mark Carrington, was one of the few positives to take from a below-par performance from the Dons.

Exeter had turned up to stadiummk with a desire to attack, to dazzle and cause the Dons a number of problems - all targets they achieved.

Their only problem was a failure to find the back of the net. Strictly speaking, they even managed that on an impressive outing in Milton Keynes, however John O'Flynn's effort in the first half was denied by an offside flag.

Dons will undoubtedly play better this season and not walk away with three points.

Robinson said: "I wasn't too happy with the way we started the game. Maybe I got it wrong tactically and I accept full responsibility for that.

"I changed it at half-time to counter what was a very good Exeter team. We changed our mentality towards the game and I thought we looked the better team."

The victory allowed Dons to leapfrog Exeter in to seventh place, and level on points with fifth and sixth placed Huddersfield Town and Colchester United, respectively.

COMING UP

TRANMERE ROVERS

League One

Saturday, October 30

Prenton Park KO 3pm

TRANMERE hauled themselves off the foot of the table with a vital 4-1 win at Walsall last weekend.

But physio-turned-manager Les Parry needs his side to continue picking up the points if they are to claw themselves away from the relegation zone.

However, returning to Prenton Park will bring little comfort to Rovers as they have managed to collect just five points from a possible 18 available on their own turf.

But, the Dons' will have to improve their away record - which is currently the second worst in the league - to get the better of their struggling opposition.

Dons welcome back Peter Leven from suspension, but remain without banned Angelo Balanta.

YEOVIL TOWN

League One

Tuesday, November 2

stadiummk KO 7.45pm

LAST season Yeovil were able to take four points from MK Dons.

An entertaining 2-2 draw was played out at stadiummk, while the return fixture saw a 1-0 win to Yeovil.

While the Dons sit level on points with two teams currently occupying the play-off places, their next opponents at stadiummk are fighting at the wrong end of the table.

Away from home goals have been hard to come by for the Glovers with just five in their seven games on the road.

But it is a leaky defence, having conceded 12 times, which has cost Yeovil points.

Lightning frustrate fans

ICE HOCKEY

MK Lightning's frustrating start to the English Ice Hockey Premier League season continued as their inconsistent form struck again.

Lightning produced a fine home display to beat Telford Tigers 4-1 on Saturday, only to slip to a 4-2 defeat to bitter rivals Peterborough Phantoms the following day.

Nick Poole's MK side, currently reigning champions, have now won five and lost four to find themselves in sixth place in the table.

The weekend started brightly for Lightning when they were ahead of their visitors Telford with just over three minutes on the clock.

Adam Brittle began the attack by finding Gary Clarke, who in turn set up Andre Smulter to score the opening goal.

The home side strengthened their grip on the game three minutes before the break when the trio combined again - this time Brittle combined with Smulter to allow Clarke to strike - to double their advantage at the end of the first period.

But the Tigers proved to be resilient as they clawed their way back in to contention with a goal from Chris Allen at 30:30.

With only one goal separating the two sides it ensured a thrilling final 20 minutes to the game.

Fortunately for Lightning fans all the excitement went in their favour as Adam Carr and Smulter both found the net to give them a comfortable win.

However, the following day Lightning were undone by two goals from Luke Ferrara.

The double strike proved decisive as Lightning fell to a 4-2 defeat at Peterborough.

Phantoms were rewarded for their good start when Tom Carlon broke the deadlock, but the first period momentum shifted when a poor line-change left Lightning's Smulter with open ice to skate through before beating Stephen Wall in goal.

Phantoms were first to add to the scoreline in the second period when Ferrara pounced on a loose puck to fire low under Barry Hollyhead.

Yet, Lightning regained level terms when another Phantoms defensive lapse allowed Smulter to net his second of the game.

The 2-2 score was short lived as Ferrara fired the home side back in front moments before the buzzer.

Lightning were then out-shot 17-7 in the final period, although Phantoms were only able to convert one of those chances.

Carlon's late strike earned Peterborough two points and the bragging rights.

■ LIGHTNING are at home to Peterborough Phantoms on Saturday, face-off 7pm, and on Sunday they travel to Telford Tigers, face-off 5.30pm.

BASKETBALL

Lions live on Sky – from a warehouse in Winterhill

NEXT month's MK Lions fixture against Essex Pirates has been selected to be shown live on Sky television.

The British Basketball League (BBL), along with their partner Televideo, have announced the sport will return to Sky TV from November .

The two year deal will see the country's top flight basketball stars showing off their skills and promoting the sport to a wider audience.

Lions owner Vince Macaulay

Lions will have the cameras at their soon to be new home, a warehouse in Winterhill.

With the venue now their own the Lions have to turn the warehouse in to a suitable den for the game, which takes place on Tuesday, November 30.

Lions owner Vince Macaulay said: "We are anticipating that this will be the first game at Winterhill."

The BBLs chairman Paul Blake said: "We are delighted to be back on Sky, and look forward to a long term partnership.

"The BBL has a very exciting product, and we can guarantee the very best of British basketball action.

"We can promise fast and furious action right through to the BBL Championship play-offs at the end of April 2011.

"We know from past experience there is a strong demand for the sport from the basketball loving TV viewers, and we looked forward to re-connecting with that fan base.

The managing director of Televideo Paul Scivill said: "We are focussed on bringing the best quality television for a sport and the BBL which provides the highest standard of action, and which makes for a very exciting product."

■ LIONS are back in action on Saturday when they travel to Plymouth Raiders. Tip-off is at 7.30pm.

RUGBY UNION

OLNEY 7 MAIDENHEAD 35

OLNEY'S unbeaten record came to an end as they were thumped 7-35 at home to Maidenhead.

Maidenhead, recently relegated back to South West 1, were bright from the whistle and made early possession count with a converted try under the posts to open a 7-0 advantage to the visitors.

Olney were given a route back with two penalties, but neither were converted. Maidenhead were eventually penalised when they had a man sent to the sin bin, yet Olney failed to take advantage.

Once they returned to 15 men Maidenhead extended their lead to 13-0 at half-time after slotting home two penalties.

Shortly after the interval Olney were reduced to 14 men and Maidenhead were able pile on the pain as they stretched their lead to 23-0.

The score increased once more when a high ball was allowed to bounce in Olney's 22 metres which allowed Maidenhead to go notch up 30 unanswered points.

Olney ensured they got a score on the board when Fletcher crossed the line and fly half Mark Marwood converted to narrow the deficit.

But Maidenhead had the final say with a late try to clinch a bonus point.

Marlow 20 Bletchley 6

BLETCHLEY made errors from the offset, but a neat drop goal from Phil Harman gave them a three point lead.

The first-half was littered with mistakes from both sides and a late drop goal from Marlow made the scores level at half-time.

The kicking game continued to dominate after the break as Harman added three more points with a penalty from distance.

But just as the visitors appeared to be getting a grip on the game, they let it slip away when a yellow card played its part in allowing Marlow to kick a penalty and convert a try to go 10-6 up.

Bletchley Colts player Josh Sprules, centre, made his debut for the full England Deaf Rugby team on Sunday. The prop came on five minutes into the second half as England thrashed Essex Vets 101-5.

Moments later Marlow were also reduced to 14 men for a high tackle on Ryan Cane. However, Marlow added to their advantage with another penalty and their second converted try of the game.

The defeat leaves Bletchley in tenth place in the table.

Mistake 'didn't help' with Webber's title ambitions

A 'CRUEL' day in racing may have cost Red Bull Racing driver Mark Webber the Formula One crown.

Both Webber, leading the Championship ahead of last weekend's Korean Grand Prix, and Sebastian Vettel were forced to retire early in a safety-car dominated race.

But a bullish Webber, now eleven points behind Korea winner Fernando Alonso, has insisted he can still win the title.

The Australian has only two races left to overhaul the Ferarri driver from the top of the standing he is to clinch his first F1 Championship.

Webber's grip on the prize slipped on Sunday when, after starting in second place, a driving error saw him crash out early on.

Speaking afterwards he said: "It was totally my fault, I got on the kerb on the exit of Turn 12 and it was a very slow-motion moment off the back of that kerb – it was my mistake and it wasn't my day.

"I thought I'd managed to catch it, but I lost the car and made contact with the wall, nothing too heavy, but it was enough to bring the car back to the other side of the track and then Nico (Rosberg) hit me, which wrecked his race as well.

"Conditions were okay by the time we were racing – on the edge, but okay.

"Today didn't help me with the Championship, but I can absolutely still win it; this was only my second non-finish of the year. Positions arent the most important thing, points are and they can change very quickly.

"I'm back with the others now on points, but there are still two races to go and I'll do my absolute best.

MK's racing outfit have not ruled out the chances of Vettel to make a late charge for the Championship.

Vettel, who retired from the lead with an engine failure, is now 25 points behind Alonso.

The German said: "There are still fifty points available in the Drivers Championship, it would have been easier if we had won today and the engine hadnt have broken, but that's life and how it goes sometimes.

"We will keep our heads down for the last two races. We have a very strong team and a strong car and we know we are the quickest.

"I can go to sleep tonight knowing I did everything I could today and we still have everything to play for.

With a one-two on the grid Red Bull Racing should have had the Constructors' Championship in the bag last weekend, but next weekend's Brazilian Grand Prix is now the earliest opportunity to get their hands on it.

He said: "Some days motor racing can be cruel and for Red Bull today it was unfortunately one of those days.

"Its our first non-points score this year, but we leave here still in the lead of the Constructors and were still in it in the Drivers too.

Dons face high-flying Stevenage in FA Cup

STEVENAGE will be a tricky tie - that is the message coming from Dons boss Karl Robinson after his side were drawn against the League Two side in the FA Cup.

The first round of the draw took place on Sunday and the Dons learnt they will travel to Broadhall Way on the weekend beginning November 6.

Stevenage, promoted to the Football League last season, are riding high in the basement division and are pushing for a place in the play-offs.

And with that in mind Robinson was cautious when talking about the test ahead of his side.

He said: "It's a tough draw for us against a side that will still have momentum following their promotion from the Conference last season.

"We're aware of the dangers of underestimating teams, but that's not our style. We pride ourselves on our professionalism and preparation for every game we play and this one will be no different.

"The objective is to get through to the second round of the competition, but we can't expect to just go there, dictate the game and have everything our own way.

"The FA Cup's a special competition for fans and players alike and well be doing everything in our power to progress as far as possible."

Last season the FA Cup was a money-earner for the Dons when they met Burnley in the third round at stadiummk.
